

to abuse this right: Pregnant women cross the border into the United States as illegals, give birth to a child and then claim the right to immigrate legally based on the citizenship of that child. Some 40 percent of children born in California are now born to parents who are illegal aliens. This is an outrageous abuse not only of our Constitution and legal system, but of the innocence of childhood as well. This end-run around the Constitution was not the intent of the Founding Fathers and we must find a way to stop it. The birth of these children not only circumvents our law, but results in huge medical costs for the hospital care of the mothers and their children. These costs are not covered by insurance and ultimately drive up the cost of insurance premiums for American citizens.

Education is another issue involving the children of illegal immigrants. When illegal aliens are enrolled in public schools, costs go up but tax revenue does not—illegal parents don't pay taxes. This results in overcrowding of schools and, ultimately, higher taxes for tax-paying citizens. In some border communities, as many as 40 percent of school enrollments come from illegal aliens.

Crossing our borders illegally is not the only crime committed by some illegal aliens. Thousands turn out to be criminals come to prey on American citizens. This not only increases fear and reduces safety, but runs up exorbitant costs when these criminals are caught, convicted and housed in U.S. prisons.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service has been hampered by incompetence, inefficiency, and indifference. The inability of this agency to do its job has become common knowledge, to the point that it is not longer a serious deterrent to attempts to illegally enter our country. The INS must be improved and we must do our part by ensuring that it is adequately staffed and funded and has the legal tools it needs to do its job.

Illegal immigrants may be the lawbreakers in this equation, but U.S. employers are often their accomplices, turning a blind eye and deaf ear to the issue. Employers have not taken seriously their responsibility to determine that would-be workers are, in fact, legal U.S. citizens, and to not only reject illegals but report them to the authorities. An immigration task force headed by Barbara Jordan recently concluded that a national identification card may be the only answer here. Such an idea is supported even by a broad spectrum of opinion, liberal to conservative.

These costs of illegal immigration add up very quickly. How can we balance the budget or make difficult cuts in worthy programs when this illegal activity is allowed to continue unchecked at such expense? As a member of the Congressional Task Force on Immigration Reform, I call on the House leadership to make this a priority of the House of 104th Congress. We must focus the spotlight on this national scandal and see that it is ended, not next year, next month or next week or even tomorrow but today. There can be no more excuses, no more delays.

THANK YOU, FRANK RECHSTEINER

HON. JAMES A. BARCIA

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 12, 1995

Mr. BARCIA. Mr. Speaker, people who generously and graciously give of themselves time and time again are most deserving of our gratitude. Mr. Frank Rechsteiner of Bay City, MI, is one such individual. He is being honored on May 31 by the Boys and Girls Clubs of Bay County, Inc., for his 25 years of service to this outstanding organization as an officer and a member of its board of directors with the awarding of its 1995 Helping Hand Award. This seventh annual Night to Remember will truly be a special one.

Frank was born in the Bay City area, in the town of Kawkawlin, which also gave us the 1993 recipient of this prestigious award, our former colleague and my predecessor, Bob Traxler. He graduated from Bay City Handy High School and continued to apply himself as a most capable individual, rising to his current position of president and CEO of Rechsteiner Trenching.

Frank's love for youth is very easy to understand. As the father of four children, MaryAnn, Michael, Matthew, and Marc, he knows personally how precious children are, and how vital careful upbringing is for their adult lives. He and his wife RoseMarie can be proud of their success as parents.

His devotion to his community includes his service on the 4-H board of directors, and his efforts as director of the Bay County Fair and Youth Exposition. As a member of the Bay City Lions Club, St. Maria Goretti Church, the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rites, and as a Noble of the Mystic Shrine Elf Khurafeh Temple, he has exemplified what it means to be involved for the betterment of his friends and neighbors.

Frank Rechsteiner is also known for supporting many organizations and individuals, including myself with his legendary pancake breakfasts. Frank doesn't say "no" when asked to help. He asks "how" and "when." That is one reason why he continues to serve today as the vice president of the Boys and Girls Club Foundation.

Mr. Speaker, we all know that our communities can be a little better, and problems easier to solve if we take the time to become involved. Some have the best of intentions, but never get involved. Frank Rechsteiner has the best of intentions and the best of involvement. He is a model to us all.

I urge you and all of our colleagues to join me in congratulating Frank Rechsteiner for his well-deserved Helping Hand Award from the Boys and Girls Clubs of Bay County.

TRIBUTE TO OUR LADY OF REDEMPTION CHURCH AND BISHOP NICHOLAS J. SAMRA

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 12, 1995

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, this coming weekend Our Lady of Redemption Church in my home State of Michigan, is celebrating its 75th anniversary. In addition, their interim pastor, Bishop Nicholas J. Samra, is celebrating his 25th anniversary as a priest.

From the very beginning, the founders of Our Lady of Redemption Church were committed to seeing the emotional, educational, and spiritual needs of the Melkite community fulfilled. These Christian immigrants from Syria and Lebanon had been attracted to the growing opportunity of Detroit since before the turn of the century. However, not until 1920 did these faithful Melkites receive their own priest. In that year Bishop Michael Gallagher of the Roman Catholic Church requested Melkite Patriarch Dimitri Cadi to send a priest for the 2000-member Melkite community within his diocese. Since that time the Melkite community has grown to become a vital part of the Detroit metropolitan area.

Originally in Detroit, the church moved to Warren to accommodate the changing demographics of the community. This weekend, in addition to celebrating the past, the members of Our Lady of Redemption Church are proudly looking toward the future. The success of this vibrant community has enabled them to begin the construction of a new church on the current grounds. The groundbreaking ceremony will take place this weekend along with the other festivities.

The Diamond Anniversary of the founding of the church is a proud milestone. Likewise, so is the Silver Anniversary of the ordination of Bishop Samra. As the community prepares to celebrate these historic anniversaries, I applaud the Melkite community for its rich contributions to the tapestry that makes up American life in Michigan. I commend the congregation for their work and faith and urge my colleagues to join with me in wishing congratulations to all the members of Our Lady of Redemption Church. May their next 75 years be a continued fruitful ministry.

TRIBUTE TO ALLEN C. MARTIN

Mr. PAYNE of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, on March 31, 1995, a distinguished public servant, Mr. Allen C. Martin, retired from his position as undersheriff in the Union County Sheriff's Office. Mr. Martin began his law enforcement career in 1953 when he joined the Elizabeth Police Department, where he was assigned to the Elizabeth Port area. In 1962, Mr. Martin joined the New Jersey Department of Corrections as a corrections officer. In 1968 he transferred to the Union County Sheriff's Office where he served as a sheriff's officer assigned to the warrant squad.

In 1978, Ralph Froehlich, a man who has since distinguished himself with his service and commitment to the ideals of justice, was elected sheriff of Union County. Sheriff Froehlich appointed Mr. Martin as undersheriff and placed him in charge of the process unit and warrant squad. Undersheriff Martin computerized the office and increased its capacity.
